PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Union is requesting bids to host its 2019, 2020 & 2021 General Assembly. Every three (3) year, ULAA member chapters vote on three consecutive Assembly venues, and in most cases, elections year falls within these years. At the 2018 Convention held in East Orange, New Jersey, the three venues were not decided upon.

ONLY CHAPTERS IN GOOD FINANCIAL STANDING, CONTINUED FULL REPRESENTATION ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, GOOD ATTENDANCE RECORDS AND CAN SHOW READINESS TO HOST THESE CONVENTIONS MUST APPLY!!!

Therefore, the National Administration is calling on all interested chapters to submit bids to host the Union's 2019, 2020 & 2021 General Assemblies. The National Administration looks forward to receiving bids through the Office of the National General Secretary, Hon. Arthur Weah Doe, National General Secretary and through this medium or the Union's Washington, DC Office. Bidding is open to all chapters, and will close on November 30, 2018 at 12:00 o'clock midnight.

Please note that upon receiving the bids, the National Administration will call a Joint Session of the National Board of Directors, National Leadership Council (Chapters' Presidents) and officials of the National Administration to vote on the three venues.

Please check your email, text messaging and voicemail regularly for IMPORTANT UPDATES.

Thank you so much for your usual kind cooperation.

Together, We Struggle for a Better ULAA and Liberia.
